

Attachment 1 - Modules and Applications in CityView

CityView includes four modules. Within each module there are a number of Apps, or individual process applications. There are various interconnections between the different Apps, but this diagram provides an overview of the many different Apps required for Planning, Development and Engineering.

